INTERN AND LAW CLERK POSITIONS AVAILABLE

The Equal Justice Society (“EJS”) is a national strategy group heightening conscious on race in the law and popular discourse. Using strategies including law, public policy, communications, convenings and the arts, EJS seeks to restore race equity issues to the national consciousness, build effective progressive alliances and create a discourse on the positive role of government. Our more than 4,000 supporters throughout the country include advocates, attorneys, jurists, scholars, social scientists and communicators. For more information visit www.equaljusticesociety.org.
