

The Oakland Museum of California is located at 1000 Oak @ 10th Street, near Lake Merritt, in Oakland. Oak is a one-way street, going north. The entrance to the parking garage is on Oak between 10th and 12th Streets.

The entrance to the Museum is at the corner of 10th and Fallon. The gates will be closed. However, there is a door located on the left side of the gate. Guests are asked to walk down the stairs and ring the buzzer on the door and ask security to let them in for the Equal Justice Society event.

BART DIRECTIONS

Take BART to the Lake Merritt station. Exit at 9th Street and turn right. At end of block turn left onto Fallon Street (Laney College is across Fallon). Fallon ends in front of the museum's 10th Street entrance.

BY CAR

From the Oakland Airport and the south, take 880 North to the Oak Street exit. Turn right on Oak and go four blocks to 10th Street. You'll see the museum on your right, at the intersection of Oak and 10th Streets.

From San Francisco:

Cross the Bay Bridge and take 580 East to 980 West/Downtown Oakland. Take the Jackson Street exit; you will be on 5th Street. Continue straight on 5th Street to the third stoplight (Oak). Turn left and continue on Oak to 10th Street.

From Walnut Creek, Orinda:

Take Highway 24 toward San Francisco, then get on 980 West/Downtown Oakland. Take the Jackson Street exit (you will be on 5th Street). Continue straight on 5th Street to the third stoplight (Oak). Turn left and continue on Oak to 10th Street.

From Livermore, Pleasanton:

Take 580 West toward San Francisco and get on 980 West/Downtown Oakland. Take the Jackson Street exit (you will be on 5th Street). Continue straight on 5th Street to the third stoplight (Oak). Turn left and continue on Oak to 10th Street.

From Marin County:

Take the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge, following signs to Oakland. You will be on Highway 580. At Golden Gate Fields Highway 580 merges with 80 West. Just past the Emeryville exit get into left lane and take 580 East to 980 West/Downtown Oakland. Take the Jackson Street exit (you will be on 5th Street). Continue straight on 5th Street to the third stoplight (Oak). Turn left and continue on Oak to 10th Street.

From San Mateo and other Peninsula cities:

Cross the San Mateo or Dunbarton bridges to the East Bay and go north on 880 to the Oak Street exit. Turn right on Oak and go four blocks to 10th Street. You'll see the museum on your right, at the intersection of Oak and 10th Streets.

From the San Jose, Santa Cruz:

Take 880 North past the airport and the Oakland Coliseum exits. Take the Oak Street exit, turn right on Oak, and go four blocks to 10th Street. You'll see the museum on your right, at the intersection of Oak and 10th Streets.

From San Mateo, other peninsula cities:

Cross the San Mateo Bridge to the East Bay and take 880 North past the airport and the Oakland Coliseum exits. Take the Oak Street exit, turn right on Oak, and go four blocks to 10th Street. You'll see the museum on your right, at the intersection of Oak and 10th Streets.

From Berkeley and Sacramento:

Take Highway 80 to 580 East. Just past Emeryville take 580 to 980 West to the Jackson Street exit (you will be on 5th Street) Continue on 5th Street to the third stoplight (Oak), and turn left. Continue on Oak to 10th Street. You'll see the museum on your right, at the intersection of Oak and 10th Streets.